Parle Industries hits 5% upper circuit again as investors chase wrong Parle stock

New Delhi.(Agency)

Shares of Parle Industries continued their sharp rally on Friday, hitting the upper circuit for the third consecutive trading session as the stock surge triggered by the viral Modi-Meloni "Melodi" moment refused to fade. Parle Industries shares climbed 4.90% to Rs 5.78 on Friday, close to their 52-week high of Rs 17.44 touched in May 2025. The company's market capitalisation currently stands at around Rs 28.23 crore. The rally comes despite the fact that Parle Industries has no connection with Melody toffees, which became the centre of social media attention earlier this week. WHAT TRIGGERED THE 'PARLE' RALLY?

Don't let rains ruin your Vacation

That moment is finally here. You've checked the weather forecast, carefully planned your travel stops and even packed three different pairs of swimwear. You get up in the morning, ready for another day at the beach, and it's raining. All your travel plans seem ridiculous as threatening black clouds cover the sky. Take heart, all is not lost. Here are a few tips to salvage your rain-ruined vacation.

A rainy day might be a far cry from the sandy, sun-kissed vacation you were hoping for, but wet weather can be truly beautiful. Local waterfalls will be at their best, and a few things can be as exhilarating as a muddy, barefoot hike through the jungle. Find a great vantage point where you can sit back, coffee in hand, and just watch the rain come thundering down. The stormier the weather, the more spectacular it is.

Accept the rains

Storm out impurities

A trip to the spa might be one of the only things on your to-do list that doesn't require a rain-check. A lot of countries have traditional cures and treatments that are not only soothing but also a lot cheaper than what you'll find back home. Sign up for a day-long retreat at your favourite spa and chase away your rainy day blues with a facial and mineral scrub. If possible, book a massage in a covered outdoor cabana. You'll reach new levels of Zen during a hot stone massage while listening to the pitter-patter of rain around you. Consider unique experiences like Iceland's geothermal spas, where it's nice and toasty even if the weather is awful.

A day of museum-hopping

A rainy day is actually a message from the universe, urging you to tick off all your indoor activities. A soggy and drenched head, but a message nonetheless. Head to the museums that have made your list for an afternoon of learning. In countries like Italy, many of the best art is found in churches rather than museums. These give you a fascinating insight into the local religion and culture.

Do as the locals do. For the locals, life almost always goes on even when things get wet. Take this opportunity to ditch the tourist traps and find out where the city's residents hang out during rainy days. This would set you up for lots of fun and insightful interactions in pubs and local restaurants. Even if you only have a tenuous grasp of the local language, you'll be surprised how friendly and accommodating people can be. You might just end up discovering an under-the-radar concert or a hole-in-the-wall eatery that no tourist's ever heard of.

Go to the beach anyway!

Throw caution—and raincoats—to the wind and head to the beach you were planning to go to, regardless of the rain. As long as the water is a manageable temperature and the conditions okay to swim, being on the beach in the rain is actually quite fun. Splash along with the raindrops and take a walk on wet sand—there is no reason a little bit of rain should put a damper on your beach fun.
